

Baltimore Cursillo – Goals for 2017

Topic	Goal for 2017	Status
Recruit and install new leaders	Lay Director	Vicky Mundt replaced Dave Luddy
	Secretary	Jean Plourde took over as secretary
	Treasurer	Mike Mundt replaced Joyce Dutilly
	4 th Day Coordinator	Andy Roe decided to stay in this position
Pre-Cursillo	Encourage our sponsors to find 10 men who would benefit from this year's weekends and complete Letters of Interest	We had 6 men live their weekends this year
	And 10 women	And 8 women
3 Day weekends	All team members active in Friendship groups, Ultreyas, and SOL	Most were active
	Strong Secretariat support to Rector/Rectora	Yes
	Revised Closura program	Yes
SOL	SOL sessions to support team formation	Yes
	Deacon leads each doctrinal talk	Yes, for most sessions. Some via Skype
	10 Cursillistas in attendance (incl 2 new Cursillistas)	Averaged 8-10
	Review draft Archbalt. pastoral plan and Joy of the Gospel. Deliver report to Dir. Evangelization on our potential role in Pastoral Plan	We studied the Joy of the Gospel but have not submitted a report yet.
Ultreyas	At least 10 well attended monthly Ultreyas	More than 10 on average. Some months over 15.
	At least 4 rotating Ultreyas including at least one in north (e.g. Towson) or west (e.g. Frederick) of Baltimore	We had one in Annapolis every 3 months. One is scheduled in Jan at St. Francis Xavier in Hunt Valley
4 th day	At least 10 new Cursillistas (2016) active in Friendship groups and Ultreyas	Yes. See updated Friendship Group listing.
	Strong 4 th day support to 2017 Cursillistas after weekends	We are doing pretty well this year.
	At least 4 well attended community wide special events, pilgrimages, Fiestas, ...	Retreat in Jan, Purse and Bag bingo in Feb, Grand Ultreya/Fiesta in Aug, Christmas party in Dec.
	Well attended spring and fall Palanca masses	Spring was fairly well attended. Fall Palanca mass was canceled.
Tax status	Become formally recognized as a 501(C)(3) tax exempt organization	Yes.
Archbalt interactions	Spring and fall sessions with John Romanowsky	No sessions yet